

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:16; sunset, 6:26.

Jas. Savage killed by fall from wagon seat.

Jacob Husterd, 63, 2633 Ward, hit by street car. May die.

Burglars got jewelry from home of Fred F. Meeker, Jr., 1442 Winnemac.

Smallpox and petty thefts have bothered Hyde Park high school lately.

Chicago golf clubs discussing plan for raising cattle and vegetables on grounds.

Frank Coloner, 8, 1338 Lake, struck by auto of Alfred McArthur, Oak Park, died.

Chicago Medical society wants congress to remove German patent rights on Salvarsan.

Norman Wait Harris estate gave $400,000 to Chicago Community Trust for charitable purposes.

Chicago Motor Bus Co. wants bus line privilege from South and West Park board. Will probably get them.

Clarence Darrow fighting for stay in case of Andrew Pepper, Austrian, sentenced to death for murder of Chris Deubler.

Thos. Inness testified against pals, Walter Stevens and Albert Chase, accused of murder of Louis Lichtenstein during robbery.

Six men arrested in Ferndale cafe, Chicago, av. and Clark, several weeks ago in connection with plot to dynamite Bismarck Gardens, freed.

Nick Moga, gardener Saddle and Cycle club, again indicted for death of Willie Drey, 14, who was hit with shears while crossing club lawn.

Rufus M. Potts, state insurance sup't, wants injunction against Chicago Motor Club and Ford Owners' Protective ass'n. No state insurance license.

Cuomo Colletta, 700 Miller, and Chas. Bakes, 548 Gilpin pl., killed and Sam Esposito, 1066 Taylor, wounded in gun battle in Jos. Esposito's saloon, 1048 Taylor. Colletta said to have started shooting.

Joyce Robinson, 3, Berwyn, killed by train.

$1,000 loot taken from home of Geo. H. Chapel, 1514 Pratt blvd.

Junior League revel at Auditorium theater netted $10,000 for charity.

Trial of Ex-Ald. De Priest and Ex-Chief Healey continued until Thursday.

Wm. Gill, 30, 1409 Van Buren, shot and wounded Samuel Churifis, barber. Arrested.

Mrs. Lucy Whitney, who died Feb. 9, left nearly all of $150,000 estate to fiancé, Samuel H. Hodge.

Jewelry and silver worth $1,200 stolen from home of Mrs. Henry J. Schmidt, 1282 North Shore av.

Mrs. H. W. Sterne, 826 Sunnyside av., awoke to find burglar in room. Her screams frightened him away.

U. S. court of appeals decided Rock Island, road was right in refusing beer consigned for shipment to dry states.

Eugene Hodge and Jas. Whitehead, negroes, given one to 14 years for attempt to kill two policemen during holdup.

Mrs. Ina Kissenger, 5039 Fulton, wants divorce from Herman D. Kissenger, Kansas City att'y. Cruelty charged.

Silk socks carried Lake Forest elections. Keene Addington elected mayor over Thos. Appleton, cotton-sock candidate.

Mrs. Zoe Graham, stenographer, wants freedom from Jas. H. Graham. Charges desertion, drunkenness and nonsupport.

Dorothy Grayner will leave Melbourne, Australia, May 10, to become bride of Edw. P. Gillen, Waukegan. It's just a trip of 11,333 miles.

Contract let by West Park board for largest swimming pool in world, to be located in Columbus park. Will cover 30,000 square feet and cost $100,000.

"Mike de Pike" Heitler given one year for transporting women from